Airsoft Technology Self-Paced Training Series: Introduction to M249 AEG:

The M249 is a light machine gun LMG It is in fact the American adaptation of the FN Minimi First introduced in 1984 it aims to provide infantry squads with massive volume of fire without sacrificing accuracy and portability The real steel comes with a quick change barrel so an overheated barrel can be easily swapped This training book has been developed from the ground up for beginners who know little about Airsoft AEG technology As part of our Airsoft Technology
