2 of 2 review helpful Could have been better executed By Ben Perdriau Disappointing I was after something similar to the rollicking tale that is Revalations Jerry Moffatt's bio However this seemed to be as much about the biographer trying to impart their own views and overly artistic style than the life of Ben Moon The results is a very dry laborious read On 14 June 1990 at Raven Tor in the Derbyshire Peak District twenty four year old Ben Moon squeezed his feet into a pair of rock shoes tied in to his rope chalked his fingers and pulled on to the wickedly overhanging zebra striped wall of limestone Two minutes later he had made rock climbing history with the first ascent of Hubble now widely recognised as the world's first F9a Born in the suburbs of London in 1966 Moon started rock climbing on the sandstone outc About the Author Ed Douglas is an award winning author of eight books about mountains and their people and a journalist whose work most often appears in The Observer and The Guardian where he contributes to the Country Diary Previous books include the first f
